

My Birthday Party

by Sammy Kwok Sum Nin

Last Saturday afternoon, my family organized a birthday party at McDonald's for me. I invited my two best friends, Tim and Joe, as well as other classmates, my parents and my relatives.

First, we played games like 'Musical Chairs' and 'Step on the balloons'. I played happily and won some prizes. Next, I blew out the candles on the birthday cake and everyone sang 'Happy Birthday'. Then, we ate the cake. It was delicious. After that, everyone gave me birthday presents. Finally, I sent all the guests home.

It was an unforgettable day. I was very happy, but I was tired too!
