  I went to Ocean Park with my parents today. First, we went to watch a dolphin show. The dolphins were very cute and so smart.   They could jump through a hula hoop! I enjoyed the show. Unfortunately, when I was clapping for the dolphins, my wallet dropped out of my pocket but I couldn't feel it.

  After that, I went to a souvenir shop to buy a beautiful pen for my friend. The pen had a cute dolphin on it and it wasn't very expensive. When I was at the checkout, I couldn't find my wallet, so I couldn't buy it. In the end, my father paid for me, but I couldn't find my wallet!
