Subject: The festival I like

The main body of the email contains the following text:

Dear Kenny,

How are you?

Let me tell you about the festival I like. My favourite festival is Chinese New Year. It is on the first day of the first lunar month, so it is usually in January or February. My family and I visit relatives and friends at this festival. They give me red packets. That's why I love Chinese New Year.

On Chinese New Year's Eve, people usually go to the flower market, but I do not like to go there. It is too crowded there. I love Chinese New Year because I can enjoy a long holiday and watch the fireworks and the parade. It is a festival that is full of happiness.

Which festival do you like?

Write back soon.

Love,
Ellen

The email content is overlaid on a background image of fireworks. There is also a small red envelope icon with the Chinese character '福' (Fú) on it, which means 'blessing' or 'good fortune'.
