Dear Mr. Fung,

I am writing to complain about the lack of policing in the neighborhood.

Last Friday, I walked back home as usual. When I passed by an alleyway.

Someone blocked my way. He was a strong man with a scar. He was in a white vest. He looked frightening. He kept staring at me when I was walking passed him.

Suddenly, he took out a knife and pointed at me. I was so scared. ‘Give me all your money immediately!’ shouted the man. I pushed him hard to the wall of the alleyway and he fell. Luckily, a policeman saw us and he arrested the man. I felt relieved that I was not hurt. I’ d be most grateful if you would take action to improve the situation.

Please reply and tell me what steps you will take.

Yours sincerely,

Sharon Fung
