Dear Emily,

I am so happy to know you are going to visit Hong Kong next month. What will you do in Hong Kong? Where will you visit? I have made a schedule for your trip.

On the first day, you can go to Ocean Park. You will see pandas and watch a dolphin show there. You also can play many different games there. In the afternoon, you can go shopping in Mongkok. There are lots of things to buy! In the evening, you can ride on the Peak tram. The night view from the Peak is amazing. I am sure you will like it. At the end of the day, you can go shopping at the Peak Tower.

On the second day, you can go to Wetland Park to visit the crocodile and watch the lovely birds there. In the afternoon, you can go to the amazing floating boat restaurant. There is lots of delicious seafood. In the evening, you can go to Tsim Sha Tsui to watch the night view of the Avenue of Stars. You can take photos and look at the handprints there.

On the last day, you can go shopping again in Mongkok. In the afternoon, you can go to the waterfront to have lunch there. You will see the beautiful Victoria Harbour there as well.

This is my plan for your three-day trip. I hope you will like it.

See you soon!

Yours,
Alvin

Uncle Peter took Kitty and Janet to buy food for dinner. First they went to a meat shop. They wanted to buy some pork chops for dinner. Then, they went to a flower shop. The flowers were beautiful and smelt good. They bought a bunch of flowers. After that, they bought some fruit to make fruit pudding for dessert. Finally, they went to a seafood shop where they bought a lobster.

When they arrived home, they wanted to cook the lobster. It crawled out of the plastic bag and onto the floor. Kitty and Janet were so frightened that they jumped onto the sofa. Uncle Peter caught it and put it into a big pot to cook it. He cooked all the food.

They had a delicious dinner that night.

Dear Miss Hung,

I asked my classmates what they like to have at our party. Many of them like salad, so we need to buy plenty of salad for them. Some of them like spicy chicken wings, so we should buy some. They all like fried rice, so we could to buy lots of fried rice. Many of them like onion rings, so we need to buy many of them. Some of my classmates like sandwiches, so we may want to buy some of those too.

We also need to buy some dessert. Many of my classmates like mango puddings and ice cream, so we need to buy plenty of dessert. Oh, we can' t forget to buy Jim' s presents and candles for the birthday cake. We have to keep it secret as we want Jim to have a surprise birthday party.

We need an adult to go shopping with us. Would you please go shopping with us tomorrow?

Love,
Willy
