

Willy Wong Ho Kwan

Dear Miss Hung,

I asked my classmates what they like to have at our party. Many of them like salad, so we need to buy plenty of salad for them. Some of them like spicy chicken wings, so we should buy some. They all like fried rice, so we could to buy lots of fried rice. Many of them like onion rings, so we need to buy many of them. Some of my classmates like sandwiches, so we may want to buy some of those too.

We also need to buy some dessert. Many of my classmates like mango puddings and ice cream, so we need to buy plenty of dessert. Oh, we can't forget to buy Jim's presents and candles for the birthday cake. We have to keep it secret as we want Jim to have a surprise birthday party.

We need an adult to go shopping with us. Would you please go shopping with us tomorrow?

Love,
Willy
