The image shows the Nearpod login interface. At the top is the Nearpod logo. Below it is the text "Welcome to this Session". There are two input fields. The first field is labeled "Name / Meeting ID" and contains the text "1A01". A green box highlights this field, and a green arrow points from the red text "請輸入" to it. The second field is labeled "Other (Optional)" and is empty. A horizontal line is drawn below the second field.
