

The Savior In White

By Ching Long Hei, Heidi

Last week, Alice went on a picnic with her parents. The weather was great but something went wrong on that day.

Alice's parents were rolling out the picnic blanket when Alice saw a white rabbit eating some grass. Alice was happy and she was jumping up and down but that made the rabbit lost its nerve and ran away.

The rabbit fled into the forest nearby out of fear. Alice ran after it in excitement. The wind felt nice on her skin. The rabbit went into a rabbit hole and stayed there.

Alice ran to the rabbit hole but suddenly it disappeared. Alice turned around quickly to find the hole but she twisted her ankle and banged her head on a tree. Poor Alice fell on the ground and cried out in pain.

Then the hole appeared again in front of Alice. The rabbit jumped out of the hole and went to Alice's parents. The rabbit told them, 'Follow me!' It guided them to Alice who were screaming their head off.

In the end, Alice was taken to hospital and her parents decided to adopt the rabbit and named it 'Little White'.
