Sunny

Today I went to Disneyland with my friend, Jim. First, we took a taxi to Disney. After we made it there, we went to let the guards check our bags.

Then, we went on the rollercoasters before getting some food. After riding the rollercoasters, we both went to get food. I got fries, milkshake and burger. Jim got the same things as me except for the milkshake. Instead, he got cola. After finishing our food we were back home in the afternoon.

Finally, after we made it back home, my mum made dinner for us. Today was the best day. I felt delighted.
