

Mum's Birthday

By Lim En Shan, Amanda

One day, John is at a gift shop because his mum's birthday is coming. He wants to buy her a birthday card.

'Oh my! The birthday cards are very expensive,' John thinks. He is surprised. He decides to go back home. When he arrives home, he starts to write a note and draw pictures to make a birthday card for his mum.

Finally, John finishes making the birthday card. He gives it to his mum on her birthday. He wishes her 'Happy Birthday'.

John's mum is surprised and happy. She said, 'I love you, John. Thank you very much for making this beautiful card for me.' John feels happy!
