

The Town Mouse and the Country Mouse

By Chung Cheuk Nam, Charlotte

The town mouse decided to be more friendly. He was nice to other mice. He opened the door and took something to the old mice. The old mice felt happy.

Then, he invited his friends to his home to eat dinner. He cooked dinner for his friends. They played together after dinner. They felt happy.

He helped his neighbor clean the windows because his neighbor hurt his leg. The town mouse was busy with cleaning the windows. His neighbor felt grateful.

In the end, the town mouse and his parents went to have BBQ. This story tells us to be kind, friendly and helpful.
