

The Inter-school Singing Contest

By Yeung Chun Hei, Daniel

Ellie, Ada and Sarah took part in the inter-school singing contest. The girls formed a group to join the inter-school singing contest but they argued during practice. They felt angry.

Miss Chan was their class teacher. Miss Chan said, 'You need to support one another. Please work as a team.' However, they did not listen to Miss Chan.

On the day of the contest, they got on the stage. All of them forgot the lyrics and their body kept shaking. They were nervous.

They closed their eyes and took a deep breath. Ellie remembered the lyrics, so she started singing. In the end, Sarah and Ada followed her. They lost in the contest but they were delighted because they became friends.

