

Cycling is Fun

By Lui Sum Lam, Katie

Last Sunday, I went cycling with my dad and my cousin, James. We met in the Hong Kong Velodrome Park. I was very excited because I have not seen James for a long time. Dad suggested us riding in a circle around the park and we agreed.

The views were amazing. We enjoyed it until James took out his mobile phone and said, 'Wow! The view is beautiful.' Then, he started to take photos.

When he was focusing on his mobile phone, there was a big turn in front of him, but he did not notice it. I wanted to remind him, but it was too late. 'Oh no!' I said. Smash! He fell onto the ground and Dad called the ambulance. I was so scared!

Luckily, the ambulance worker said he was not seriously hurt. Finally, Dad and I could breathe normally again. 'Sorry, I should not take photos and ride bicycle at the same time. I will never do that again, I promise.' In the end, we went home happily.
