Lazy Amy

Last Wednesday, Amy was surfing the NET late at night. She was watching videos at home, her mum told her to watch fewer videos and go to bed before 10'o clock, but she didn't listen.

The next day, she woke up late. She was worried she couldn't go to school on time. So she brushed her teeth and got dressed quickly, then she ran out the door to get on the minibus.

Unfortunately, she missed the minibus. She had to take a taxi or a bus to get to school on time.

At last, the teacher told her she needed to be punctual. She was devastated. After school, her mum told her, 'Defeat is not the worst of failures. Not to have tries is the true failure. If you go to bed early, you will not be late for school.'
